Dawgs Gearing Up For Season Opener

The Time Is Now

Eagan, 12.09.2024, 13:07 Time

USPA News - Eagan,MN——The Minnesota Bulldogs have been gearing up this offseason to get in position to compete during the 2024-2025 Maximum Basketball League season.

The Bulldogs have retooled and ready to go for the 2024-2025 Maximum Basketball League season. Coach Michael Wright feels with the addition of the Hines twins, it will create the dept they need to push teams like the defending champs, “Michigan Avengers” to the limits. With allstar point guard Bryce Williams returning, they feel he has that leadership to steer this young core in the right direction in which they wanna be headed. Look for rookie guard Tyler McGee to be worked into the rotation as he has shown flashes of getting to the level the front office wants to see. Newton and Bettie Williams has joined the ownership core along with Wright as they look to create one of the top teams in minor league basketball. The Bulldogs road to the playoffs won’t be easy as they will be the only MBL team to travel across the nation for games and if some how these guys do win the championship, they will truly be crowned the MBL World Champions. Stay tuned as the Dawgs have been in talks to bring in other talent to the star studded lineup. Make sure you tune in on a regular basis as this will be the official feed for the Dawgs throughout the season.
