7 MINISTERS TO CELEBRATE COMMITMENT FOR THE INCLUSION OF THE DEAF CHILDREN WITH THE LALLA ASMAA FOUNDATION CLOSING CEREMONY 14TH JUNE, RABAT, MOROCCO

At the crossroads of compassion and public service, Morocco reaffirms its leadership in social inclusion through the outstanding work of the Lalla Asmaa Foundation, dedicated to empowering underprivileged deaf and hard-of-hearing children. The closing ceremony of the 2024/2025 for the of the Lalla Asmaa Foundation for deaf children and with hearing impairment, academic year was far more than a festive occasion it was a powerful manifestation of national unity and institutional solidarity. Held under the gracious patronage of Her Royal Highness Princess Lalla Asmaa, the event gathered seven key ministers, all of whom are members of the Foundation's Board of Directors, and whose ministries have signed formal cooperation agreements with the Foundation. Their presence was not simply protocol; it embodied a collective will to make inclusion a State priority and to ensure that no child is left behind, regardless of their circumstances or abilities. And stand up for the handicapped rules...

THE 7 MINISTERS WHO ATTENDED THE CLOSING CEREMONY IN THE GARDEN & OUTDOOR, RABAT, 14th JUNE 2025

Among the distinguished officials attending were:

- Ms. Naima Ibn Yahia, Minister of Solidarity, Social Integration and Family
- Ms. Amal El Fellah, Minister Delegate to the Head of Government, in charge of Digital Transition and Administrative Reform
- Mr. Fouzi Lekjaa, Minister Delegate to the Minister of Economy and Finance, in charge of the Budget
- Mr. Mohamed Saad Berrada, Minister of National Education, Preschool and Sports
- Mr. Amine Tehraoui, Minister of Health and Social Protection
- Mr. Azzedine El Midaoui, Minister of Higher Education, Scientific Research and Innovation
- Mr. Mohammed Mehdi Bensaid, Minister of Youth, Culture and Communication

Each of these ministries has entered into a formal partnership with the Lalla Asmaa Foundation, creating a multisectoral alliance for inclusion, bridging education, health, culture, digital access, public finance, and social protection.

As young performers graced the stage with sign language, music, and joy, the event became a live illustration of what Morocco can achieve when political will meets grassroots impact.

It also sent a clear message: dignity is not charity; it is a right.

The Lalla Asmaa Foundation continues to serve as a model of inclusive governance, where ministries do not work in silos but come together around a common purpose: ensuring every child, regardless of hearing ability or background, has access to opportunity, care, and belonging.

More than a foundation, it is a movement led by vision, guided by values, and supported by the highest levels of the Moroccan state. Their joint attendance marked a strong message: that the future of children with hearing impairments is a national cause, embraced at the highest levels of the State.

As speeches echoed with words of unity and purpose, and as children performed in sign language embodying the beauty of communication beyond sound the ceremony reminded all in attendance that progress begins when no one is left behind. The Lalla Asmaa Foundation is more than an institution. It is a movement. A promise. A living proof that when ministries, civil society, and the royal family walk hand in hand, inclusion is no longer a dream, it becomes a legacy."
